GOOD PRACTICE IN CIVIL JUDICIAL EXPERTISE IN THE EUROPEAN UNION

LES BONNES PRATIQUES DE L'EXPERTISE JUDICIAIRE CIVILE DANS L'UNION EUROPÉENNE

Towards a European expertise
Vers une expertise européenne

Edited by Béatrice Deshayes, Philippe Jacquemin

Katharina Bleutge, Gilles Cuniberti, Luboš Dörfl, Lyubomir
Gerdzhikov, Manfred Kaufmann, Jean-Raymond Lemaire et Alain Nuée.

The European Expertise and Expert Institute pursues, among its objectives, the identification of possible convergences of national judicial expertise systems and proposes developments to improve the quality of judicial expertise carried out in Europe.

Co-financed by the European Commission, the project entitled EGLE (European Guide for Legal Expertise) has resulted in the Guide of good practices in civil judicial expertise in the European Union.

With a foreword by Giorgio Santacroce, Honorary First President of the Italian Court of Cassation and the conclusion by François Psychère, Chairman of the GT-QUAL (Council of Europe), the present book enriches and completes the Guide with a series of analysis and reflexions on their implementation.

Under the guidance of Philippe Jacquemin, vice-president and Béatrice Deshayes, deputy general secretary of the Institute, the text is a collection of contributions from Katharina Bleutge, Gilles Cuniberti, Luboš Dörfl, Lyubomir Gerdzhikov, Manfred Kaufmann, Jean-Raymond Lemaire and Alain Nuée.
